

$\triangle OSQ$ is a right triangle. The points R and T slide along OQ and SQ, respectively, keeping segment RT perpendicular to segment SQ.

At what point will the area of $\triangle RTQ$ be $\frac{4}{9}$ the area of $\triangle OSQ$?

